Re: United States v. Jose Martinez-Diaz*, 1:16-cr-387-10 (JMF)

Dear Judge Furman:

Counsel for the defendant in the above-captioned matter request that the Court adjourn sentencing, currently scheduled for December 15, 2020, to a date in May. The government, through Assistant United States Attorney Andrew Thomas, consents to this request.

This is the third request for an adjournment of sentencing. Mr. Martinez-Diaz first requested an adjournment on January 30, 2020 (ECF No. 354), because the BOP had moved Mr. Martinez-Diaz from the MDC in Brooklyn to Puerto Rico, where he was also under indictment. On June 30, 2020, Mr. Martinez-Diaz requested a second adjournment (ECF No. 420) for the same reason. On September 28, 2020, Mr. Martinez-Diaz pled guilty, in the District of Puerto Rico, to conspiring to possess with intent to distribute cocaine, in violation of 21 U.S.C. § 841(a)(1). The District of Puerto Rico ordered that sentencing would be scheduled after Your Honor imposes a sentence in this case. See Minute Entry for Change of Plea Hearing, United States v. Jose Martinez-Diaz, 3:18-cr-00100-DRD (D.P.R. Sept. 28, 2020), ECF No. 135.

Mr. Martinez-Diaz is still in Puerto Rico. Counsel therefore continues to have limited access to Mr. Martinez-Diaz, which impairs our ability to prepare his sentencing submission and prepare him for a sentencing hearing.

Respectfully Submitted,
